AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION
ONE HUNDRED NINETEENTH ANNUAL MEETING
JANUARY 6 – 9, 2005 – SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

SESSION	TITLE OF PAPER	AUTHOR
13	Undutiful Daughters: Marriages without Familial Consent in the Sixteenth-Century German Nobility	Judith J. Hurwich Fairfield University
36	Masking Menstruation: Lillian Gilbrith and Menstrual Hygiene	Sharra Vostral Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute
49	In the Name of Freedom: The Brazilian Branch of the African Emigration Scheme (Brazil-British West Indies, 1840's)	Beartiz G. Mamigonian Universidade Federal de Santa Catarina, Brazil
70	Local Views of American Military Families at Overseas Bases in the Early Cold War Era	Donna Alvah St. Lawrence University
77	Planning for the Periphery: Economy, Ecology, and Identity on the Metropolitan Fringe	Allen Dieterich-Ward University of Michigan
79	From White Supremacy to White Power: The FBI, COINTELPRO-WHITE HATE, and the Nazification of the Ku Klux Klan	John Drabble Koc University, Istanbul Turkey
84	Conditioning the Body for Performance: Political Implications of Performance Discourses in German Sports, Medicine, and Psychology during the Weimar Republic	Michael Hau Monash University
115	No Longer the Same Woman: Medical Perceptions of Menopause, 1900–1950	Wendy Mitchinson University of Waterloo
134	The Loss of the "Distinctive Mark," or the Moving Boundaries of Race in the Antebellum Charleston	Lawrence Aje University of Versailles Saint-Quentin en Yvelines

160	"Criminalistic Fantasy" and the Culture of Crisis in Weimar Germany	Todd Herzog University of Cincinnati
161	Ball of Confusion: The African American Response to the First Earth Day	Sylvia Hood Washington Depaul University
163	The Black Power and Chicano Movements and the Poverty Wars in Los Angeles	Washington State University Tri-Citites